

Why Participate?

- To enjoy time with each other during this special weekend designed to give healthy married couples assistance in becoming “one”...
- For an opportunity to attend to your marriage away from the distractions and “busy-ness” of daily life...
- To learn more about your faith and the Church’s teaching of marriage as a path to your salvation...
- To draw closer to Christ and each other through the retreat workshops and liturgical services...
- To meet and share with other couples...
- To be refreshed by the beautiful, peaceful surroundings that await you at the Village...

“Crowned With Glory and Honor”

Tools for Marriage Enrichment
February 18-20, 2011

“For the state of wedlock does not estrange us from God, but rather ties us more closely to Him, for it brings forth a greater impetus to turn to Him.”

St. Gregory the Theologian

Retreat Leaders

Fr. Don and Kh. Maggie Hock have been married for thirty-eight years with five grown children and six grandchildren.

Fr. Don is the pastor of St. Mary Orthodox Church in Omaha, NE and Dean of the Great Plains Deanery of the Antiochian Archdiocese.

Kh. Maggie is the North American Director of the Department of Marriage and Parish Family Ministries for the Antiochian Archdiocese. Maggie is also a psychotherapist and mediator. She presents seminars on marriage, family, and parenting for Pan-Orthodox audiences.

Schedule Note

The retreat schedule ends with brunch on Sunday, 2/20/11. For parents who will be picking children up from Winter Camp, or others who would like to extend their weekend, we are offering a package add-on which includes Sunday night dinner and Evening Program, lodging, and breakfast on Monday.
